[NUMB. 814.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY, December 11th, to MONDAY December 18th, 1749.

LONDON, Auguſt 24.

IT is now ſuggeſted, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, not Lord Delawar, will be appointed by his Majeſty Grand Maſter of the Order of the Bath, in the room of the late Duke of Montague.

There is a Report propagated, that a Subſidy Treaty will be made betwixt the Crowns of Great-Britain and Denmark; by which 100,000 l. Sterling is to be annually paid to the latter, on the Condition that it ſhall keep 10,000 Men always in Readineſs for the Service of his Britannick Majeſty; to be employ'd by him in what Manner he ſhall think proper. It is obſervable on this Occaſion, whether the Report be true or falſe, that, as no ſuch Treaty ſubſiſted betwixt theſe Courts at the Time of the late Rebellion, that of Denmark had not any Body of Troops ready for the Service of its Ally, tho' indeed it promiſed to ſend one in caſe of the laſt Extremity: And yet the Alliance betwixt the two Crowns had not long before been ſtrengthen'd by an Intermarriage. But Daniſh Troops, if entirely under Command, may be always of Uſe to the E——te of H——r, how little Benefit ſoever may be expected from them in Great-Britain.

We hear that a Squadron of ſeveral Men of War will certainly be ſent into the Mediterranean; but whether to puniſh the Barbary Pirates, or for any other Purpoſe, is not declar'd.

We hear that a Bill will be brought in next Seſſions of Parliament, to take off all Cuſtoms, &c either inward or outward, on Salt uſed for curing Fiſh in the Scotch Fiſheries, on Fiſh cured for either foreign or home Markets, as alſo off Naval Stores and Materials for the Fiſheries for the Term of ſeven Years.

'Tis ſaid that ſome Repreſentations have been made to this Court from Holland, relating to the Bounds of our Fiſhery.

A few Days ſince died, at his Lodgings at Hampton, Charles Upton, Eſq; a Commander in the Royal Navy, Son of that celebrated Grammarian and Maſter of Claſſical Learning, the Rev. Mr. James Upton, who died a few Days ago at Taunton, in the 80th Year of his Age.

London, Auguſt 25. By Letters from Madrid, bearing Date the 7th of this Inſtant Aug. we are informed, that his Catholick Majeſty, in Conſideration of the many and great Services which the Count de Bena de Maſſeran, Lieutenant General of his Majeſty's Marine, has done the State, has conſtituted and appointed the ſaid Count, Governor General of his Naval Forces, and has inveſted him with the General Direction and Management of all Affairs relating to the Marine, with an Annual Penſion of Six Thouſand Piſtoles.

We hear that his Majeſty, has been pleaſed to preſent the Regiment, late General Barrel's, to Col. Rich, Son of Sir Robert Rich, a Gentleman who diſtinguiſhed himſelf by his extraordinary Bravery in an Action againſt the Rebels, and in which he had one of his Hands cut off.

London, Auguſt 26. On Wedneſday laſt arrived here from the Court of Turin, M. Vilettes, late Reſident at that Court.

And on Thurſday he waited on his Majeſty at Kenſington, and was moſt graciouſly received.

London, Auguſt 29. By Letters from ſeveral Perſons on the Coaſt of Scotland, we are informed, that ſome Hundreds of People are already employed in ſevering the Ground, and preparing other Matters for the Fiſhery. This Scheme is ſo well received by all Degrees of People; that each are forming to themſelves the pleaſing Proſpect of a comfortable Subſiſtence.

Friday the Companies of ſeveral Ships waited on his Majeſty with a Petition, praying the Payment of the Prize Money, due for Prizes taken in the Mediterranean; when they received for Anſwer, That it was put in a Method of Payment, and they would receive all imaginable Satisfaction in a few Days.

BOSTON, November 13.

A Number of Gentlemen met at the Town Houſe in Boſton, on Tueſday the 7th Inſtant, to project and agree upon ſome Methods for advantageouſly improving the Produce, Trade and Buſineſs of the Province, and promoting Frugality and good œconomy in the Inhabitants; and after ſome Diſcourſe on thoſe Subjects, they agreed to meet again at the ſame Place on Tueſday next, the 14th Inſtant, at Three o'Clock Afternoon; when and where all other Gentlemen who are diſpos'd to promote and encourage ſuch good Deſigns, are deſired, if they ſee cauſe, to meet and unite with the Gentlemen as aforeſaid.
